RE: In the Matter of the Voluntary Dissolution of Feeding Our Future
Court File No. 19HA-CV-22-657

Dear Judge Lutz,

The Court's Amended Order for Supervision dated July 18, 2022 at paragraph 1(c) requires Feeding Our Future to "produce the inventory required by paragraph 2(c) [of the Court's April 11, 2022 Order for Supervision] within 30 days of the issuance of this Order." Specifically, Feeding Our Future is required to "produce a full and detailed inventory of all tangible and intangible property it owns, including but not limited to all funds, monies, currency, bank accounts, securities, stocks, bonds, real property, land, buildings, personal property, furniture, equipment, intellectual property, and physical assets." This correspondence and its attachments are meant to serve as that production.

Feeding Our Future, to the best of its information and belief, has no bank accounts, securities, stocks, bonds, real property, land, or buildings. Furthermore, it has no saleable intellectual property.

With respect to funds, monies, and currency, all of Feeding Our Future's cash assets were seized by the U.S. Department of Justice on January 19, 2022. See Second Declaration of Jennifer L. Urban, Exhibit 1, page 5 of the January 31, 2022 bank statement. The amount of cash assets seized was $3,506,066.80. Id.

Feeding Our Future's personal property (including furniture, equipment, and physical assets) can be lumped into two categories. The first category is personal property that was seized by the U.S. Department of Justice on January 20, 2022. See Second Declaration of Jennifer L. Urban, Exhibit 1, claim form, spreadsheet with detailed descriptions. This personal property largely consists of electronic equipment (iPads, iPhones, computers) and paper documents. The second category is personal property liquidated pursuant to this Court's June 10, 2022 Order Granting Authorization to Liquidate Personal Property. As part of Feeding Our Future's petition, the organization provided a copy of the inventory located at 3055 Old Hwy 8, Suite 312, St. Anthony, MN 55418. See Third Declaration of Jennifer L. Urban, Exhibit 1. To the best of Feeding Our Future's information and belief, the organization has no other personal property existing at other locations.
