Dennis Prager is one of the leading thinkers in American public life. The long-time host of a popular radio program and founder of Prager University, he is a best-selling author, a noted theologian, a symphony orchestra conductor, and one of America's most powerful conservative voices. Prager is perhaps our most effective defender of the American founding and the Judeo-Christian tradition, and a brilliant public speaker.

And this year, we are teaming Dennis up with PragerU's Amala Ekpunobi, a 21-year-old rising star who is a former leftist and now a podcasting and social media sensation who inspires millions of young people every day to discover the truths of conservatism.

Don't miss this inspiring program!
